Capability Statement

Program Overview

The U.S. Department of Transportation has been distributing the transit benefit to federal employees since the early 1990s. TRANServe enables federal agencies to make use of a single established system with effective internal controls over the receipt, maintenance and distribution of the transit benefit to over 200,000 federal employees.

TRANServe is a fee for service program within the Department of Transportation that provides transit benefit program administration and distribution services for federal agencies. We alleviate the administrative burden of running the transit benefit program for our customers by assuming all data entry responsibilities in addition to providing best practices and resource tools. TRANServe has developed a staff with excellent qualifications and expertise on this program.

TRANServe provides unique advantages due to its size and breadth of experience and does this by working together with customers to ensure eligible employees receive their transit benefit and use it appropriately.

Your Roles and Responsibilities

- Understand the Transit Benefit Program's scope and limitations
- Understand it is a violation of federal law to transfer or sell the transit benefit or to provide false or fraudulent information in order to obtain the benefit
- Understand the potential penalties for misuse or false claims

Your Roles and Responsibilities

- To not be named on a worksite parking permit at any Federal agency, nor participate in a carpool
- To use the transit benefit for home to work and work to home transportation only.
- To Ensure the amount of transit benefit received does not exceed actual monthly commuting cost of public transportation
- To recertify your application to update commuting expenses whenever your commuting method, work schedule or address changes

Legal Implications

Employees who misuse the transit benefit are subject to appropriate administrative action including discipline and/or disqualification from future participation in the Transit Benefit Program.

Disciplinary penalties can range from a letter of admonishment to removal from Federal Service, depending on the severity of the abuse.

Monthly Debit Card Funding Schedule

The Transit Benefit Certification Statement

Certification Is Required

Certify:

“To formally and legally attest a specific statement to be true”

Before you can enroll in the Transit Benefit Program you must first certify that certain conditions are true about you.

Read the Certification Statement Carefully

WARNING !

This certification concerns a matter within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States. Making a false, fictitious, or fraudulent certification may constitute criminal violations punishable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001, by imprisonment up to five years and fines up to $10,000 for each offense, and/or agency disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal.

- I certify that I am employed by the U.S. Federal Government.
- I certify that I am not named on a federally subsidized parking permit at this or any other federal agency.
- I certify that I am eligible for a public transportation fare benefit, will use it for my daily commute to and from work by public transit or vanpool, and will not give, sell, or transfer it to anyone else.
- I certify that in any given month, I will not use the Government-provided transit benefit in excess of the statutory limit. If my commuting costs per month on public transit exceed the month statutory limit, then I will supplement those additional costs with my own funds rather than use a Government-provided transit benefit designated for use in a future month.
- I certify that I will not claim the transit benefit in excess of my actual monthly commuting expense. If at anytime during a given month I am out of work due to sickness, vacation or any other reason, on official travel, or use a private vehicle for commuting, I will claim less and adjust the amount of my transit benefit the following month if appropriate.
- I certify that my parking fees are not included in the computation of the daily, weekly or monthly commuting costs for my transit benefit.

Knowledge Check 10

James is going to an off-site meeting. He is using mass transportation to travel to and from the meeting. Since he has extra funds on his TRANServe Card he decides to use his transit benefit. This is the correct course of action.

☐ True

☐ False

The answer is....

Knowledge Check 10

James is going to an off-site meeting. He is using mass transportation to travel to and from the meeting. Since he has extra funds on his TRANServe Card he decides to use his transit benefit. This is the correct course of action.

☐ True

☐ False

Travel to an off-site meeting or training class is an office expense. The Transit Benefit is provided solely for your home-to-work-to-home commute via mass transportation. “Extra” funds are swept back to your Agency at the end of the monthly cycle. A permanent change requires that you update your application so you do not tie up much needed funds.
